Lecture by Judge Robert Russell, 12pm to 1pm

The Disabled American Veterans (DAV) Distinguished Speaker Series is proud to present the Honorable Robert

Russell, founder of the nation's first Veterans Treatment Court.

Judge Russell will reflect on his founding of the Court and the future of the Veterans Treatment Court movement.

Our honored guest, Retired Executive Director of DAV National Service and Legislative Headquarters, David Gorman, will deliver opening remarks and brief introductions will be made by Daniel Nagin, the Faculty Director of LSC and the Veterans Legal Clinic and Vice Dean for Experiential and Clinical Education

A boxed lunch will be provided at 12pm. RSVP is required.*

Panel Discussion, 1pm to 2pm

Following the lecture, Judge Russell will join three other distinguished guests in a discussion panel:

- The Honorable Eleanor Sinnott
  Veterans Treatment Court, Boston Municipal Court
- The Honorable Mary Hogan Sullivan
  Veterans Treatment Court, Dedham District Court
- Major Evan Seamone, USAR
  Professor, Mississippi College School of Law

The panel discussion will be moderated by Betsy Gwin, Clinical Instructor and DAV Charitable Service Trust Fellow, of LSC's Veterans Legal Clinic.

Space is limited. An RSVP is requested in order to guarantee seating.

Boxed lunch subject to resolution of UNITE HERE Local 26 union strike*
